Mrs. W. L. Oury writes: "Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 2, 1905. For 3 years I was troubled with pimples, black-heads and spots. I tried everything advertised for skin diseases without relief, until the past few weeks have used Nadinola with marvelous results. My complexion has been changed to a smooth beautiful pink, without blemish. I shall always keep Nadinola in my home."

PARIS, TENNESSEE.

Sold in Alexandria by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons and leading druggists.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Nadinola's Hairdressing.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect."
Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in postage for sample to The Herpicide Co., "Two" St., N.Y.

E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Special Agents.

The Moroccan Affair.

The role of the United States at the Moroccan conference arouses much discussion and some apprehension. In Paris, in which the officials and diplomats are taking an active part. This is due mainly to the dispatches printed in London papers and reproduced in Paris, purporting to give the American policy. One dispatch, stating that the United States will uphold the German contention, caused unfavorable comment, but a dispatch from Madrid to the London Times, printed yesterday, saying that the United States will support Great Britain, Russia, Italy and Spain in concert with France, counteracted the first impression and caused more favorable comment. This was evidenced during the departure of the French delegates for Algiers.

The Paris newspapers quote a member of the delegation as saying: "Great Britain and the United States are rather favorably disposed toward us, while Spain and Italy are with us as Latin nations."

The taint of official censorship and secrecy which has radiated from the White House to every bureau and division of the various executive departments has at last found its insidious way to the United States Senate, where the decision was yesterday reached that the Moroccan imbroglio could only be discussed on the floor of the Senate behind closed doors.

Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, who is the principal advocate of administration foreign policies and relations on the floor of the Senate, yesterday objected to the discussion in open session of the resolution which was introduced Monday by Senator Bacon, of Georgia, calling for information as to the extent to which the finger of the State Department had been stuck into the Moroccan pie. Upon motion of Mr. Lodge the galleries were cleared and the doors closed. Under the rules of the Senate the doors may be closed whenever a Senator objects to the discussion in open session of matters he thinks ought to be debated secretly. Senator Lodge made the necessary resolution, and under the rules the doors must be closed while the motion is being debated.

There was the liveliest sort of discussion behind closed doors. Senator Bacon led the minority and Senator Spooner came to the rescue of Senator Lodge. Finally, after a discussion of two hours, the Senate, by a strict party vote, decided that the Bacon resolution should be debated and considered in secret legislative session.

Senators Lodge and Spooner contended that questions involving delicate foreign relations should not be discussed in open session. The opposition contended that the Moroccan resolution did not involve any pending treaty, and that the rights of Senators to free and full discussion of public questions in the open should not be restricted except in the cases of treaties and nominations, which should be considered in secret session.

Senator Lodge announced yesterday evening that he would move for the closing of the doors every time an attempt is made to discuss foreign relations in public.

Alleged Assaults.

J. Antoni Ambroselli, a restaurant keeper and prominent Fourth ward politician, of Charlottesville, was arrested yesterday and charged with assaulting Rosa, the 14-year-old daughter of Arthur H. Dudley. The preliminary examination held yesterday afternoon attracted a large crowd. According to the father's testimony, the alleged misconduct occurred in the middle of December. It seemed incredible to him, but he resolved to be on the watch, and on Monday, when his daughter went into Ambroselli's place and did not promptly return, he attempted to enter the building by a rear door, but was excluded, the girl in the meantime leaving the building through the public room. The child's testimony, while not entirely direct, was sufficient for Justice Watson to commit the accused for the grand jury. The accused will today apply for bail. He denies every charge alleged against him.

The case of William W. Patterson, the young Henrico county farmer, charged with attempted criminal assault on Miss Cora Crittenden, a girl of 18 years, came to trial in Richmond yesterday before Judge Carter R. Scott. The case at once took a serious turn when Patterson's friends were led to believe the courtroom was cleared of everyone except the lawyers and jury. The young woman told on the witness stand how Patterson came to the house while her father was out on the farm, pulled her out of the door and drew a pistol. She told him she would tell her father, when Patterson threatened if she did he would blow out her brains and kill himself. She declares he tore her collar and shirtwaist, and tore her apron off. She screamed, and finally got away from him and started to Mrs. Yeager's, a neighbor, when he met her again, she says, began to cry and offered her all the money he had if she would not tell on him. She was asked a number of questions in regard to clandestine meetings with Patterson by the lawyer for the defense, whose evident purpose was to show that the girl was in love with Patterson, and, while stung by his indifference, would do almost anything for him, and also to test her veracity. Many witnesses have been summoned, and the case will last some days.

Bent Her Double.

"I knew no one for four weeks when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburgh, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was cured by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure, stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker, of Potomac, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any remedy after having once used this remedy. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
